(Last updated July 2019)

The following is a list of attorneys, law firms (“Bufete,” the term used in Costa Rica for the law firms), and other available legal aid resources licensed to practice in Costa Rica.

The purpose of this document is to provide you with guidance regarding professionals and institutions that can provide legal assistance in Costa Rica. Even though we attempt to include only reputable professionals on this list, neither the Department of State nor the U.S. Embassy may assume any responsibility for the quality of services provided. It is always recommended to consult more than one entity prior to making any decisions, and always request to have information regarding responsibilities agreed to by both parties written in your native language.

It is important to point out that in Costa Rica all legal firms have established minimum base fees for all services. It is advisable to have a clear understanding of all charges prior to commissioning any and all legal services.

DISCLAIMER: The U.S. Embassy in San José, Costa Rica assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional abilities or quality of services provided by the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Embassy. Names appear alphabetically and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided by the lawyers themselves; the Embassy is not in a position to vouch for such information. You may receive additional information about the individuals on the list by contacting the local bar association (or its equivalent) or the local licensing authorities.

You may receive additional information about the individuals or firms by contacting:
